

CONFIDENCE

Words by Dale Neumann

I know you love me
'Cause you won't make a fool of me
And it's taken me time to be there
I know you care
'Cause you've always been so fair
Now it's time for both of us to repair

You tried to save me
When you could no longer blame me
And we start to sew up the tear.
You wanted me
But there's too much that was haunting me
And we got out of each other's hair

You gave me something
That I continue Liking
And I'll always keep you in my heart
We shared our knowledge
And we pushed each other to the edge
We learned and made a natural start.

FINDING THE “Q” POINT

Words by Dale Neumann

You're living alone
Coming from your perspective
You need one to love
You're looking very dejected

Your job's not your life
There's not that much passion
Where can you turn?
Your brain keeps on thrashin'

Refrain

Finding the Q point
You better take care
Finding the Q point
You better beware
Finding the Q point
You gotta play fair
Finding the Q point
You're gonna get there

You're rushing your life
You're not going anywhere special
You want life to last
But you always want the best. You'll be ...

... looking for that place where living is high
... looking for a home
 that doesn't hurt your eye

Refrain

Halfway between bliss and hell
Halfway between straight and spell
Halfway between lust and hate
Halfway between choice and fate

Once you find the point
That sweet spot of your heart
Strike when you should strike
Hold off when you should stop
Live within your dreams
Now you’ll be on top !

Refrain

FRUSTRATION

Words by Dale Neumann

It's the middle of a working day
You can't wait to go out and play
Your job's a bore
Can't wait to get out the door
Don't want to work here no more

B (If only a radio to help the time go by < Another minute of this call
(And you think you're gonna die.

C (Isn't it frustration
< But you gotta keep going
(No time for waiting (Got to do what you're hating

It's the middle of a working day
Can't wait to spend your pay
Your brain is mush
Your dreams a flush
Don't want to work here no more

(B)
(C)

It's the middle of a working day
Can't wait, but you have to stay
Your heart is grieving
Your minds deceiving
Don't want to work here no more

IDENTITY

Words by Dale Neumann

Refrain

There's the best of the worst
And the worst of the best
It seems like I'm becoming both
I come up with the answer
Get it off my chest
It's just another outbreak of growth
To some I seem smarter
To others I'm dumb
Perspective of reality
I can calculate apples
But how big is the orchard?
Just who am I supposed to be?

Who will I be
When it all pans out
Is just another mystery
Then there will be no point
Of learning all this history

Refrain

It's a crime that I'm part of
The way of the world
Everyone completes the scene
We go out of our way
To be somebody else
Before we can fulfill the dream

Refrain

So take care of yourself
In your journey through life
Searchin' for your identity
You can get your wish
Taming practicality

\Refrain (6 lines)

To some I am magic
To others a bore
There's just no brain stability
I can move with the best
But seem like the worst
I guess it's relativity

LONELY MAN BLUES

Words by Dale Neumann

I sing the blues about you babe
Why don't you come back to me ?
What made you set me free ?

I've been a lonely man, baby
 You make me lonelier then I be

I sing the blues about you baby
 How have I done you wrong
I sing the blues about you baby
 I had to write this song

I've been a lonely man, baby
 I've been lonely for so long

I sing the blues about you baby
I sing it night and day
I sing the blues about you baby
I sing it anyway,

I've been a man, baby
 I'll be lonelier everyday.

LOVERS RAP

Words by Dale Neumann

Refrain

What do lovers rap about,
When they rap ?
Do they tap into their minds,
Or do they trap ?
Should they know what they have said,
In their bed ?
Do they talk about the act,
Or kiss instead ?

I was hanging with my baby,
Late last night.
We talked about the things we do,
Until it was right.
So I hugged her and I kissed her,
As I held her close,
But before I popped the blister,
She said I was gross.

Refrain

I was taking out my baby
To a drive-in show.
Had to coax her and convince her
That she wanted to go
We watched a lot and kissed a lot
And what do you know
When the credits were over
She said, "Let's take it slow."

Refrain

Walkin home my baby,
On Christmas Eve.
Something in peculiar,
Moving up my sleeve.
As we strolled along the path
Up to the door
I asked her in a subtle way
If I could have more

She said that I was silly
To be begging for love
If it's meant to be
Then it will come from above
I said, "We have something,
Just between us two."
She said that when the time is right,
She'll feel it, too.

Refrain

MEAN MACHINE

Words by Dale Neumann

Refrain

Say what you mean
Say what you mean
Say what you mean
Baby, come clean.

I open my mouth
Several words come out
But they don't sound the same
I had an Idea
Tried to spitting it out
But the meaning's been put to shame

I converse with you
You listen to me
But that's not the same idea.
You give me a look
My mouth's the crook
Hindered by internal fear

MEETING OF THE MINDS

Words by Dale Neumann

Testing of the waters
The rivers of the soul
Trust will take some time
Love will make us whole

Communication linkage
Strand connecting strand
Defenses slowly falling
As we get to know the land

Refrain

Opening the channels
Setting up the stations
Reading into meaning
Using our creations

Following the rules
And keeping to the rock
Reaching out for sunshine
Circling the block

What turns heads away
Should be met with consultation
What holds in our feelings
Is defeating combination

What brings eyes together
Must always be respected
Chance is just design
A sign to the elected

Time does its work
Making ideas mesh
Slowly we make one
Abandoning the flesh

Exchanging information
At such incredible speed
Our bodies changing form
From breed to newer breed

Refrain
